

«Hie syg's nid verbote,
Töifer z'sy»

"Here it was not forbidden to be Anabaptist"

Swiss Anabaptist Heritage Foundation exhibition

Jeanguisboden Chapel
May 10 to November 2 2025

To commemorate the 500th anniversary of the Anabaptist movement, the Swiss Anabaptist Heritage Foundation is hosting an exhibition at the Jeanguisboden chapel, focusing on the Anabaptists in the Jura. The exhibition highlights the daily lives of these communities and their connection to faith through crafts and art.

The displayed objects come from the Evangelical Mennonite Community of Sonnenberg, from Dr. U.J. Gerber and the Collection Maeder & Studer Biel/Bienne.

Collection
MAEDER & STUDER
Biel / Bienne

The 'Anabaptist Simon Gerber' station, part of the 2024 On the move across the world theme trail developed by the Ballenberg Museum and Helvetas, is also featured.

STIFTUNG
TÄUFER
ERBE

Duration of the exhibition

Saturday, May 10 2025 to Sunday, November 2 2025

Opening times

Wed / Sat / Sun: 14:00-17:00h

Fri: 17:00-20:00h

Admission rates

CHF 10.—, children free

Guided group tours on request

Guided tours of the archives on request,

CHF 5.— per person

Cultural program (provisional)

(see website for detailed information)

May 10 2025 Opening event from 16:00h

June: Choir

July: Brassband Concert

August: Storytelling afternoon

September: Panel discussion

October: Movie evening

Guided tours of the archives

May 21 2025 / June 21 2025/ September 21 2025

Contact

Swiss Anabaptist Heritage Foundation

info@fha-ste.ch

Hansuli Gerber

+41 79 285 78 94

Directions

